Site Definition

This website is about my projects. It's purpose is to share my work from school projects. I want to showcase my past projects that I am proud of in a portfolio kind of style. The users will be interacting with this website by clicking through tabs: about, contact, projects, home. On the projects page they will be able to navigate through different projects that I have done.

Persona

- 40's
- female
- masters degree
- HR rep/ recruiter of the company she works at
- extroverted
- interested in seeing what the people she helps hire can bring to the table